- City Tour.
- Navigation through the Beagle Channel.

Arrival at Ushuaia airport and shuttle to the hotel.

After lunch we will do a city tour with a local guide, who will help us discover this wonderful city known as “The End of the World”. This comes from its proximity to the South Pole, the city is in La Isla Grande de Tierra del Fuego, a land that was inhabited by the native Selknam until the last century.

On our tour we will visit lovely places such as Paseo de los Artesanos, where artists make and show their works in front of Ushuaia Bay and next to Saint Christopher (a ship that run aground there 100 years ago). We will also see the urban architecture known as “Fueguino style”, which creates a wonderful and romantic view of “The End of the World”.

Another special place to visit is “Nave Tierra”, the first 100% self-sustaining house in Latin America, built entirely of recycled materials and with installations of devices that generate wind and solar energy for home consumption.

Later we will go to the dock and board on an amazing navigation through the Beagle Channel, the navigable route linking the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

Along our journey we will have the possibility of seeing the natural habitat of several species of fauna and flora from the region on our visit to Isla de Los Pájaros and Isla de Los Lobos. These two islands are the home of albatross, seagulls and seals.

Another highlight of our tour will be the picturesque Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse, where we will have time for the photo that every visitor must have.

We will then navigate until Karelo Island, where we will have the possibility of trekking and visiting the remains of the native Selknam. On the way back to Ushuaia the sight of the Martial Glacier behind the city will create an unforgettable image that amazes every person who visits The End of the World.

Overnight in Ushuaia.

DAY 2 | USHUAIA

- End of the World Train.
- Tierra del Fuego National Park.
- Lapataia Bay.

After breakfast we will board The End of The World Train, an old steam train that will take us to Tierra del Fuego National Park, located at 14 km from Ushuaia, an area of Bosque Fueguino of 63000 hectares.

Once in the park we will go trekking accompanied by a guide. We will walk along the trails between rivers, ponds and the southern hills of the Andes Mountains.

We will go through Lapataia Bay, a fiord located in the southwest of Argentina, right in the border with Chile, where the km 0 is found. The beginning of a road that finished after 17848 km in Alaska.

After half a day in the woods, we will go back to Ushuaia for a free afternoon in the city.

We recommend visiting interesting sites such as Ex-Presidio, an old maximum security prison that is now a museum.

We will find several museums with exhibitions about old native cultures of the region, flora, fauna and cultural findings.

Overnight in Ushuaia.
